

"Invitational education is a philosophy and set of activities intended to create a total school climate that is welcoming — a place that intentionally stimulates people to realize their individual and collective potential."

Stan Friedland — CEO, Principal Services

A SAFE SCHOOL